

Rockhampton's Riverside Precinct is the heart of the city, offering the best views of the Fitzroy River (Tunuba) and is an exemplary example of modern, integrated urban design that sits alongside the city's strip of heritage-listed buildings. The precinct architecture celebrates the State's largest regional collection of heritage buildings and rich collection of art, along with the natural wonders of the Fitzroy River (Tunuba) and Mount Archer (Nurim). Stroll along the heritage soaked sandstone boulevard on Quay Street and across the lower bank boardwalk surrounded by lush plantings, public artworks and a picturesque boat dotted vista. Families can enjoy the precinct's playground towards the William Street end of the precinct and perch up with a coffee while they explore the bright sculptural works of the rainbow serpent, Munda-Gadda, then cool off amongst Rod Laver Plaza's pop-up water jets.
